

Publications

Public media: Connecting family learning across settings

As public media stations with outreach departments, you play a powerful part in connecting families with resources, local activities, and events that cultivate children's learning about the topics that excite them most.

The Joan Ganz Cooney Center at Sesame Workshop

Presentations

Broadening Participation in STEM: Re-imagining the Role of Latino Parents as Equal Partners in STEM Learning.

Poster session presented at the Annual Research & Project Symposium of Pepperdine Graduate School of Education & Psychology.

Los Angeles, CA

May 2019

Learning Ecosystems: Parents as Equal Partners in STEM.

Working paper presented at the Program for the International Organization of Social Sciences and Behavioral Research. New Orleans, LA.

New Orleans, LA

March 2020

Stop, Collaborate, & Listen: Working with Latino Families.

Presentation at PBS Annual Meeting.

New Orleans, LA

May 2018

Community engagement: Exploring Ready To Learn's role with Community Partnerships.

Presentation at the Annual National Family and Community Engagement Conference.

San Francisco, CA

March 2018

Getting Young Children Ready to Learn with Media Resources and Family Engagement.

Presentation at the Annual National Family and Community Engagement Conference.

Pittsburg, Philadelphia

June 2016

Public Media: Innovative Approaches to Early Learning.

Presentation at the Annual Best Out of School Time Conference (BOOST).

Palm Springs, CA

April 2016

External Blog Posts

Public Media Is Proving Its Mission More Important than Ever

On Thursday, March 12, 2020, PBS SoCal, KCET and the Los Angeles Unified School District, the second-largest district in the nation, announced a plan to provide Pre-K-12th grade

Joan Ganz Cooney Center

16th March 2020

An Interactive Learning Guide for At-Home Learning

We pulled together a few ideas to help parents use our educational activities at home, while teachers can use them for assignments in their online learning environments.

PBS SoCal

16th March 2020

5 Tips for Parents Balancing Screen Time During School Closures

When used thoughtfully, high-quality screen time is an incredibly powerful way to make sure our children keep learning and growing.

Joan Ganz Cooney Center

15th March 2020

Tips and Apps to Design Meaningful Educational Experiences

How to choose the best app for your students.

PBS SoCal

2nd April 2020

Life as a Doctoral Student

In honor of #NationalHigherEducation day, featured two classmates and I on a blog post, discussing our first-year experiences as EdD students at Pepperdine University. We reflected on what the Doctor of Organizational Leadership and Doctor of Education in Learning Technologies means for the three of us.

PBS SoCal

9th June 2018